I have the working code, but I'm sure there's a more Pythonic way of doing it. I'm looking for two things: More Pythonic syntax Number between 0 and 10, but I want to find a way to add more options (i.e. -1 to

10) without having to add options like -3 and 9 I'm sure there's a way to tell it to start the list at 0 or something, but I haven't been able to find anything. Here's the code I have: numbers=[] # Allows for a range of numbers to be put into the list while True: print('\t\t') # Allows the user to input numbers between 0 and 10 for x in range(0,11

Its working now but had to use an icon pack that supports custom directory icons such as that one, here's my full description of how I got this to work on my win8/i7 pc in case any one else has the same issue. You need to save game first. Then, login to Origin, go to Games. Then click on Black. Open the game file which is named Bkd. Open a notepad. Write something like "skinFolder = Full path of desktop icon of your rar file". At the end of the line, add: " " (space). Save the file. Then, put the file.rar and rar extractor tool at same folder, right click, and click on "extract". Extract the.7z file in the result folder. Right click at this folder and click "open with". Open the infinalysis.en folder. Right click the folder, and click "open with" > "Notepad" and enter the path of your extracted.7z file. Copy the path in Notepad and paste in the file. Save. You can try and put this path in the file: "c:\temp\audio.pas" (first line of the file). If it works, when you go back to your game, and click the sound button, there should be an option that says "use the alternate folder". When you do this, it should show the notification that it is working. If it doesn't work, try and delete the file: "c:\temp\audio.pas". Hope that helps. It worked for me. Downloaded from. at all on my PC with the current W10 updates. I have to manually run the game without the "auto update" option otherwise it refuses to start, and my attempt to get it to run from the download folder while disabled on the updater fails.

Everything else has worked though. I'm going to try something like
