Cassandra Leigh. The Hunger Game. Translation from English by V.N.
Petrasheva. Â© Oxford University Press, 1990. In the ten years after the end of World War II, there were endless discussions in the West about the events of the time, especially about Hiroshima and Nagasaki. These events caused more and more alarm in the countries of the West. A propaganda war has once again flared up in the United States aimed at discrediting the image of the USSR and the Soviet Union as the winner of fascism.
